New Jersey Foreclosure Survival Workbook

A print-ready planning workbook for New Jersey homeowners, heirs, executors, families, and property professionals organizing foreclosure notices, court deadlines, servicer options, sheriff sale risk, and equity decisions.

Viera Investment Group LLC	New Jersey foreclosure and property situations	v1.0	July 9, 2026

This workbook is an educational planning tool designed to help organize documents, deadlines, questions, and information. It is not legal, tax, accounting, financial, or investment advice and should not replace guidance from licensed professionals.

Our role is to help people understand complicated residential property situations, simplify the process, coordinate experienced professionals when appropriate, and help families move forward with greater clarity and confidence—not replace the advice of licensed professionals.

Complex residential property situations often require several professionals working together. Depending on the circumstances, Viera Investment Group LLC may help coordinate the property-related process with experienced attorneys, title companies, loan servicers, lenders, estate professionals, municipal offices, contractors, Realtors®, accountants, financial professionals, and other licensed specialists.

Welcome

This workbook helps organize the facts that usually become scattered during foreclosure pressure: what stage the case is in, which documents have arrived, which dates matter, who has authority, and which options need professional review.

Use it as a practical organizer. It does not replace an attorney, housing counselor, bankruptcy professional, tax professional, title company, mortgage servicer, court, sheriff, municipal office, or any public agency.

Who this workbook is for

- ☐ New Jersey homeowners trying to understand foreclosure notices and deadlines.
- ☐ Heirs, executors, or administrators handling a property already in mortgage default.
- ☐ Families comparing keep, cure, sell, defend, modify, mediate, or bankruptcy consultation options.
- ☐ Attorneys, housing counselors, financial professionals, and real estate professionals who want a clean client intake companion.

Use this first

- ☐ Print the workbook or type into the DOCX version.
- ☐ Complete the urgent deadline pages before the planning pages.
- ☐ Keep copies of notices, court papers, servicer letters, payoff statements, and sheriff sale notices together.
- ☐ Verify the exact case status, sale date, payoff, reinstatement figure, and legal options before relying on any timeline.

How to Use This Workbook

Move from notices to deadlines to options. Do not try to solve the full foreclosure in one sitting. First identify the current stage, then complete the worksheets that match the next decision.

Recommended order

- ☐ Complete the immediate first steps checklist.
- ☐ Build the foreclosure timeline and authority checklist.
- ☐ Gather mortgage, court, title, tax, utility, HOA, insurance, and property documents.
- ☐ Prepare questions for the servicer, attorney, housing counselor, and sheriff.
- ☐ Use the family meeting worksheet and action plan before signing anything or missing a deadline.

What to leave blank

- ☐ Leave any legal conclusion blank until confirmed by counsel.
- ☐ Leave any payoff, reinstatement, redemption, lien, or tax balance blank until verified in writing.
- ☐ Leave sale, modification, mediation, bankruptcy, short sale, or deed-in-lieu decisions blank until authority, title, and timing are clear.

Immediate First Steps After a Foreclosure Notice

The first few days after a foreclosure notice are about preserving options, confirming deadlines, and avoiding irreversible mistakes. This page is intentionally practical and conservative.

Checklist

- ☐ Do not ignore the notice, complaint, court mailing, sheriff sale notice, or servicer letter.
- ☐ Write down every date shown on the document, including service date, answer deadline, mediation deadline, sale date, and response deadline.
- ☐ Create a foreclosure folder for mortgage statements, court papers, notices, payoff letters, modification letters, tax bills, and insurance records.
- ☐ Call the mortgage servicer through a verified phone number and request current reinstatement, payoff, and loss-mitigation options in writing.
- ☐ Check whether a complaint, lis pendens, default, final judgment, writ, or sheriff sale has already been filed.
- ☐ Contact a New Jersey foreclosure attorney or approved housing counselor if court papers or sale dates are involved.
- ☐ Confirm who has authority if the owner has died, is incapacitated, or multiple owners/heirs are involved.
- ☐ Do not sign rescue, deed transfer, listing, short sale, bankruptcy, or modification paperwork without review.

Foreclosure Timeline

New Jersey foreclosure timing depends on the loan, notices, service date, court filings, county sheriff schedule, title issues, loss-mitigation activity, and legal action. Use this as an organizer, not a promise of timing.

Stage	What to organize	Date / deadline	Owner
Missed payment or default	Confirm delinquency, late fees, escrow changes, hardship reason, and current servicer contact information.
Notice of Intention to Foreclose	Review the pre-foreclosure notice, cure amount, response date, and loss-mitigation instructions.
Complaint and lis pendens	Confirm the docket number, service date, answer deadline, mediation availability, and attorney review needs.
Default or final judgment	Confirm whether default or judgment has entered and request current payoff, reinstatement, or redemption figures.
Sheriff sale scheduled	Verify the sale date with the county sheriff and review adjournment, sale, redemption, and legal options.
Post-sale and surplus issues	Track confirmation, possession, deed, surplus funds, junior liens, estate issues, and next housing steps.

Owner and Authority Checklist

Foreclosure decisions often stall because no one has confirmed who can speak, sign, negotiate, answer the complaint, sell, modify, or make estate decisions.

Checklist

- ☐ Identify every borrower, owner, spouse, co-owner, heir, executor, administrator, occupant, and decision maker.
- ☐ Confirm who was served with the foreclosure complaint and when service occurred.
- ☐ Confirm whether anyone has Letters Testamentary, Letters of Administration, power of attorney, guardianship authority, or court authority.
- ☐ Determine who can speak with the mortgage servicer and what authorization or estate documents are required.
- ☐ Confirm whether all owners agree on the goal: keep, cure, modify, sell, defend, short sale, deed in lieu, or consult bankruptcy counsel.
- ☐ Track who is paying insurance, utilities, taxes, HOA/condo dues, repairs, and security.
- ☐ Ask counsel what actions require unanimous owner consent, estate authority, lender approval, or court approval.
- ☐ Keep written proof of every authorization, submission, call, deadline, and document request.

Family Meeting Worksheet

Family meetings work better when the agenda is narrow and facts are separated from opinions. Use this worksheet before discussing foreclosure options, sale decisions, or family contributions.

Meeting date	People attending
Decision needed	Person leading notes

Known facts everyone agrees on

Open questions that need professional answers

Deadlines and expenses that must be handled soon

Options to compare: keep, cure, modify, mediate, sell, defend, short sale, deed in lieu

Concerns from each owner, borrower, heir, or occupant

Agreements made during the meeting

Action Plan

Convert foreclosure pressure into assigned tasks. Keep the first action plan short enough to finish before the next deadline.

Common Mistakes

These mistakes can create court, title, family, lender, tax, insurance, municipal, or equity problems. Use this page as a final review before signing anything or making a major decision.

Checklist

- ☐ Assuming the property is already lost because a notice, complaint, lis pendens, default, or judgment exists.
- ☐ Missing the answer, mediation, modification, sheriff sale, adjournment, redemption, or document-submission deadline.
- ☐ Relying on verbal payoff, reinstatement, sale-date, or modification information without written proof.
- ☐ Ignoring taxes, utilities, HOA/condo dues, insurance, code violations, or municipal liens while focusing only on the mortgage.
- ☐ Letting insurance lapse or failing to address vacancy, winterization, locks, leaks, repairs, or occupancy risk.
- ☐ Allowing one person to control access, mail, servicer communication, or documents without transparency.
- ☐ Signing foreclosure rescue, deed transfer, listing, short sale, or deed-in-lieu paperwork without professional review.
- ☐ Waiting until the sheriff sale is too close before confirming title, authority, payoff, sale logistics, or legal options.
